

Coin of Herod Agrippa II

Obverse: Figure of the “Tabernaculum,” or Umbrella (an Oriental representation of power), with the inscription (in Greek), “Of King Agrippa.”

Reverse: Three ears of grain bound together (perhaps a symbol of the Jewish oblations), with the date partially obliterated.