

Ancient Roman Bracelets: 1. A Lady's, having a Rosette in the centre, with holes at each end where others were once attached (found at Rome); 2. Composed of two gold Wires twisted together, with a peculiar Clasp; 3. A heavy Coil, evidently a military Token of Honor.