

Antique Bas-relief, representing Part of the Myth of Circe.

In the lower left corner we see Ulysses just landed, and receiving from Mercury the plant Moly, as a preventive against enchantment. In the right Ulysses is shown threatening Circe with death. In the upper portion Circe restores Ulysses' men to their human form.