

Ancient Egyptian Fowlers' catching Geese, and Poultryers.

Fig. 1. A clear space, for the clap-net, b, b, and the decoys, c. 2. Watching among the reeds, d, and reporting when the trap is ready to spring. 3. Passing along the word to 4, the men who pull the rope. 5. Carrying away the captured game. 6. Brings it to the poultry-house, where 9 plucks and draws the birds, and 8 salts and hangs them up for sale, or 7 poins them for future use. See FOWL.