

Stone C of the Second Course from the Bottom of the Eastern Wall of the Haram at Jerusalem. (The marks are in red paint, and in some instances they are now upside-down, showing that the stones were drafted and marked in the quarry.)