

Ancient Egyptian, Kabbaneh, or Public Weigher and Notary.

1. The weigher; 2. The notary making an official record; a. The bag of money to be weighed; b. The frame or box containing a, a pile of coins in the form of rings; c. A stand supporting k, a weight in the form of a lamb; d. One scale containing a number of coins; e. An apparatus for steadying g, the arm of the balance; h. An ape, the emblem of Thoth, the god of justice, presiding over the operation; i. The other scale containing the weight.